

Home Ownership Education Fair provides helps to first-time buyers

The city of Aurora and the Aurora Housing Authority present the 4th Annual Home Ownership Education Fair to be held:

April 25, from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Summit Event Center
411 Sable Boulevard

The Home Ownership Education Fair concentrates on providing education to those looking to purchase their first home, needing down payment assistance or hoping to qualify.

Exhibits and classes will give participants an overview of subjects related to buying a home:

- Down payment assistance program
- Goal setting
- Budgeting
- Credit acquisition and restoration
- Bank accounts
- Home loan programs
- Affordable housing developments
- The real estate process
- Avoiding predatory lending practices

The fair is free and open to the public and it will include activities for kids, along with refreshments and giveaways. Multilingual interpreters will be available.

The Home Ownership Education Fair is a part of the Aurora Community Development Division, offering assistance in foreclosure counseling, housing and commercial rehabilitation, homeless initiatives, public facilities projects and home ownership assistance.
