The Chair Carolyn Boller called the meeting to order at 6:03 p.m.

New Business:

Before the business at hand was discussed, Chair Boller gave brief instructions as to the purpose of the special meeting. She stated that there will be no recommendations and no discussion as to the legal and ethical issues that are in question. Our job this evening is to simply explore options, logistics, cost and oversight and to give some clarity to the City Council regarding the issues at hand.

a. Oversight/Options to Safeguard the 2019 Regular Municipal Election

- Councilmember Charlie Richardson read a statement regarding the Arapahoe County Clerk and some possible alleged conflict of interest with running the 2019 Election. Councilmember Richardson requested that the Election Commission investigate the cost of running our own elections as well as the ethical & integrity issues associated.

b. Cost/Logistics of Running a Standalone Election

Adjournment – 7:26 p.m.

Carolyn Boller, Chair
