OLD BUSINESS/NEW BUSINESS:

- Scope of Work Update – Rian French, PROS Project Manager for Planning Design, and Construction.

Next meeting with Eppley will be on December 19th in-person at the Aurora Center for Active Adults. In the last meeting Eppley presented a first draft of the Scope of Work (SOW). They will continue to be flexible to assure SOW content meets all City guidelines and requirements. Rian provided information about the process of what

- the project will look like moving forward and will provide more details at the December 19th meeting.
- Jeannie advised that a meeting has been scheduled with the City of Aurora Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Department. They are a support team and will assist in the selection of the consultant for the Needs Assessment.
 - Jeannie mentioned that additional information regarding the transportation presentation had been received and was shared with Commissioners.
 - Transportation Committee – Jeannie stated that she received a status update report from Joe Sack regarding the City’s transportation initiative with DRCOG. She will review the report and recommendations Joe has made. The ACFOA established a Transportation Committee some time ago and she attends monthly meetings with TSAC (Transportation Solutions of Arapahoe County).
 - Julie Patterson, COA Senior Communications Strategist, invited Jeannie to attend a media event for Buildup Aurora, a residential street rehabilitation project. She attended on behalf of the ACFOA.
 - Public Relations Committee – Juanita has been invited to speak about the ACFOA at an upcoming meeting of the Federal Retired Employees.
 - Seniors 88 Event -- Barbara shared the event was well attended by 200 people at each performance. Ronald mentioned the show was fantastic!
 - Colorado Resilient Life Center Foundation (CORLC) – Commissioners discussed whether to support the efforts of the Colorado Resilient Life Center Foundation (CORLC). Jenalise Long, Co-Founder, presented information to ACFOA last month soliciting support for this nonprofit organization which is working to build a community-based peer-run respite center to assist those in trauma recovery. Its mission is to promote community wellness through advocacy, collaboration, and innovative accessible programming focused on individual, community, and system resilience.

Upon motion, a second, and consensus of the Commission, the motion for support passed unanimously.

- Lori Sanchez provided information regarding the National Adult Day Association’s (NADA) recently released Older Adult Report.
