Single Points of Access through an Adjacent Jurisdiction

Providing only one point of access through another jurisdiction is not an acceptable operational position for the City. It would make the provision of both life safety services and street maintenance very difficult. Where two distinct points of public and emergency access is required one suggestion would be to construct a 24’ wide section of roadway from an existing Aurora street to the entrance of the development which would provide two points of access to the site.