

Studio A is looking for local talent!

AuroraTV is looking for talented guests to appear on its new program – Studio A. This program features performances from local Aurora talent as well as interviews. The performances could be any performance art or special talent (music, poetry, dance, juggling, etc.) and be individuals or groups. All performances and interviews will be done in the AuroraTV studios located at the Aurora Municipal Center.

All submissions will become property of AuroraTV and even those not selected to appear as a guest in the studio as part of the program may have part of their video submission used during the show.

Studio A video audition instructions:

Video auditions may be placed in the Studio A Dropbox at: https://tinyurl.com/AuroraTVStudioA

Additionally, please email: AuroraTV@auroragov.org and us know you've submitted a video audition, who the audition is for and how to best contact you.

Using the DropBox folder is preferable, but if you'd prefer to send a YouTube or Vimeo link to AuroraTV@auroragov.org for your audition, that's also acceptable.

Please address any questions to: AuroraTV@auroragov.org
