BROADWAY BOUND:
THREE FACES OF OZ
Explore music, dance and scene work from “The Wizard of Oz, The Wiz & Wicked.” Learn to audition and act in musicals. Create a showcase performance highlighting your new skills. This class is good for students with or without experience but they should be willing to sing, dance and act. 5th grade reading level, memorization and outside class work required.
235181 July 18-29
Mon. - Fri., 1-4 p.m.
Aurora Fox Studio • 9900 E. Colfax Ave.
$200 ($180 Resident)
Instructors: Benjamin Shoenberger and Lisa Cantwell

Perform for family and friends on the last day of class. Dress for movement. Bring water bottle. Daily attendance and homework are essential to the success of theatre camps and classes.

To register, visit auroragov.org/recreation and click on the Register for Classes button, or call 303.326.8650.

Partially funded by The Scientific & Cultural Facilities District
FUNNY FAIRY TALES
Explore a different fairy tale parody every day, while learning about story structure, character, voice & movement. Share one of your favorites with family and friends on the last day of class. Stories include the “True Story of the Three Little Pigs.”
235151 June 13-24
Mon.- Fri. 10:30 a.m.-Noon
Central Library, Large Community Room
14949 E. Alameda Parkway
$100 ($80 Resident)
Instructor: Dara Osborne

FRACTURED FAIRY TALES
Learn about acting and storytelling by acting out the fractured fairy tales from the “Rocky & Bullwinkle” eShow. Act out a different fractured fairy tale every day. Choose your favorite to share with family and friends on the last day of class. Stories include “Cutie and the Beast” and “Tom Tum.”
235153 July 12- 22
Tue. - Fri., 12:30-2:30 p.m.
Tallyn’s Reach Library, Community Room
23911 E. Arapahoe Road
$100 ($80 Resident)
Instructor: Abner Genece

“DOCTOR WHO”
Create and perform a play based on the “Doctor Who” television and fan fiction series. Include all your favorite characters and create a new “Doctor Who” adventure story. Learn about characterization using voice and movement and how to tell a dramatic story. Which “Who” will you be? 2nd grade reading level, memorization and outside class work required.
235160 June 13-24
Mon. - Fri., 1-4 p.m.
High Point Church • 6450 S Southlands Parkway
$200 ($180 Resident)
Instructors: Jennifer Patten and Dara Osborne

“STAR WARS”
Create and perform a play based on the “Star Wars” film and fan fiction series. Include all your favorite characters and create a new “Star Wars” adventure. Learn about characterization using voice and movement and how to tell a dramatic story. May the force be with you! 2nd grade reading level, memorization and outside class work required.
235161 July 11-22
Mon. - Fri., 9 a.m.-Noon
Aurora Fox Studio • 9900 E. Colfax Ave.
$200 ($180 Resident)
Instructors: Hugo Jon Sayles and Abner Genece

SHERLOCK HOLMES MYSTERY
Create and perform a play based on the “Sherlock Holmes” mysteries by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Set in modern times, the play will draw on some of the most famous and interesting Holmes mysteries. Learn to create a play through research and improvisation. Create scenes between these famous and infamous characters. Assist directors with costumes, props, program and music. 5th grade reading level, memorization and outside class work required.
235184 June 13-24
Mon. - Fri., 1-4 p.m.
Aurora Fox Studio • 9900 E. Colfax Ave.
$200 ($180 Resident)
Instructors: Suzanna Wellens and Hugo Jon Sayles

TAKE TWO:
TWILIGHT PARODY
Challenge yourself by creating a parody of the “Twilight” fiction and film series. A parody imitates and exaggerates the characteristics of the original work to make it seem ridiculous. Create a play through research and improvisation. Learn the refined art of character parody. Fun and engaging for both fans and critics. 5th grade reading level, memorization and outside class work required.
235185 July 5-15, no class on July 4th.
Mon. - Fri., 1-4 p.m.
Aurora Fox Studio • 9900 E. Colfax Ave.
$200 ($180 Resident)
Instructors: Lisa Cantwell and Benjamin Shoenberger

ACTING UP Camps
Ages: 4-6

LITTLE FOXES Camps
Ages: 7-10

TEEN ACTING Camps
Ages: 11-18