Colorado in the spring—sunshine or snow will greet your days! This spring we are heading out for all points East, West, North and South for your enjoyment! Browse through the newsletter and you are guaranteed to find an excursion that interests you, whether it is a stage production at a theater, a tour of a historical building, shopping or dining or hitting the trails, there is something for everyone!

All of our trips require moderate walking and a few stairs. Excursions with a 🦃 next to the trip name usually include a walking tour of the venue or there will be a significant amount of walking and stairs required. Note the day trips marked with the ⛰ indicate trips at high altitude over 8,000’. Please note that if participants plan on bringing a walker or wheelchair or need special handicapped accessibility seating or dietary considerations, they must notify the front desk when they register to ensure accommodations can be met. Return trip times are approximate. Some of our trips leave from Central Recreation Center, please note which ones when you are registering for your excursions.

“SECRETS OF THE UNIVERSE” AT THE FOX THEATER
In 1937, a physics professor at Princeton University received a call. The internationally-renowned classical singer Marian Anderson was giving a concert at the McCarter Theatre at Princeton. But because she was African-American, Anderson was denied a hotel room. Instead she accepted an invitation to stay at a professor’s home. That professor was Albert Einstein. Stars will collide when the true story of lifelong friendship between Albert Einstein and Marian Anderson comes to life in this musically re-imagined world premiere. Fee includes show, escort and transportation.

DHT: BAD BOYS AND BAWDY GIRLS
If you are looking for the tales of well-mannered gentleman and swooning ladies with rose-scented handkerchiefs, this isn’t it. Denver’s earliest tales were almost never written by gentlemen, and polite company doesn’t even discuss those kinds of ladies. Fortunately, Denver History Tours is not a polite company, at least not this time around. The shady ladies and killer cowboys are gone, so let’s dig into their stories in safety! Tour includes a break for lunch on your own at a nearby restaurant of your choice.

Fee includes private tour of the Stanley Hotel, escort and transportation.

RAGTIME” AT THE BOULDER DINNER THEATER
At the dawn of a new century, everything is changing… and anything is possible. Set in the volatile melting pot of turn-of-the-century New York, three distinct American tales are woven together – that of a stifled upper-class wife, a determined Jewish immigrant and a daring young Harlem musician – united by their courage, compassion and belief in the promise of the future. Together, they confront history’s timeless contradictions of wealth and poverty, freedom and prejudice, hope and despair… and what it means to live in America. Fee includes show, luncheon, escort and transportation.
